

NEW WEST WALES INNOVATIONS FORUM

Are you a business/enterprise providing care and support? Whether large or small, established or just setting up, with paid staff or volunteer-led – everyone is welcome!

Are you interested in delivering social value to people and communities?

If you want to be involved in creating and taking forward a movement in West Wales which is all about building social value for people who need care and support, this is for you.

HOLD THE DATE!

21st May 2019 at The Queen's Hall,
Narberth, between 10am and 4pm

This event is supported by the West Wales Care partnership

WHY SHOULD YOU ATTEND?

Does your work relate to well-being?
For example, do you deliver social care and support, including advocacy, provide housing, supported employment or learning opportunities? Do you have examples and ideas you can share or do you want to know more and network and learn with others?

Do you want to find out more about the work of the West Wales Care Partnership and the support that is available to social value organisations?

HOW TO ATTEND

This is a free all-day event, lunch will be provided. Places will be limited, so to register your interest in attending, please call:
