learning for the future

…preparing the voluntary sector for the day after tomorrow

A FREE one-day event on Wednesday 6 October 2004 at The Stackpole Centre, Pembroke

10.00 am – 4.00 pm
with local produce lunch

No-one knows exactly what the future holds, but one thing is clear. Changes are coming. The voluntary sector is facing a big shake-up with changes to traditional patterns of funding and service delivery, as the focus shifts away from grants towards a more enterprising mix of income generation activity and fund raising.

Creative thinking, challenging the status quo and the ability to adapt will be vital over the next decade. This one-day event is all about preparing the sector to face the challenges that lie ahead and make the most of new opportunities as they arise.

Doing nothing is not an option, so take positive action now and make this event your first step towards planning a successful future.

Ni wyr neb yn union beth a ddeil y dyfodol, ond un peth sy'n sicr: Fe ddaw newidiadau. Mae'r sector gwirfoddol yn wynebu trawsnewidiad a fydd yn golygu newidiadau i batrymau traddodiadol o gyllido a darpariaeth gwasanaeth, wrth i'r pwyslais symud oddi wrth gymorthdaliadau tuag at gymysgedd anhurus o weithgareddau creu incwm a chodi arian.

Bydd meddwl yn greadigol, herian y status quo a'r gallu i addasu yn hanfodol yn ystod y degawd nesaf. Hanfod y digwyddiad un-dydd yma yw paratoi'r sector i wynebu'r sialens sydd i ddod ag i fanteisio ar gyfleon newydd wrth iddyn nhw godi.

Dyw gwneud dim ddim yn ddewis, felly cymrwch gamau pendant nawr gan wneud yn siŵr mai'r digwyddiad yma fydd eich cam cyntaf tuag at gynllunio dyfodol llewyrchus.
